FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE SPRING Semester, 2009

Examinations will take place in the rooms in which the individual classes have been meeting, UNLESS otherwise announced.

A course or section having TWO (2) section letters (AB, AN, NX, etc.) will have its Final Examination on the day and at the time for the FIRST letter.

A course or section having a NUMBER/LETTER section designator (2A, 2N, etc.) will have its Final Examination on the day and at the time for the LETTER.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

- Final Examinations may not be given during a regularly-scheduled class period.
- No examination shall be permitted during the reading period.
- Final Examinations may be rescheduled only with the permission of the dean.
- No student shall be required to take more than two final examinations on one day. A student having three or more final examinations scheduled during one day may request the instructor of the course with the smallest enrollment to reschedule the examination for that individual. The request shall be made no later than two weeks before the last class day.
- A student who has a conflict between a final examination and a religious observation may request that the instructor reschedule that student's examination. The request shall be made no later than two weeks before the last class day.
- For the resolution of any problem pertaining to the scheduling of final examinations, students should first consult their instructor. If the matter cannot be resolved, the student should contact the Ombudsperson.
